Wounds From Rusty Nails Dangerous

Serious results, through blood poisoning, often occur from scratches, cuts or wounds from rusty nails or other metal. Don't run this danger. Protect yourself by having a bottle of Houstonia always at hand.

Dean McKillip, well-known farmer of Clark Co., Ohio, says: "I stepped on a rusty nail which extended half-way through my foot. I applied Houstonia to the wound and bandaged the foot. In a short time the pain got easier. After five days I did not limp and the wound healed nicely. People who use Houstonia for such injuries do not need to fear blood poisoning."

Houstonia (The Original Jones' Lintiment) may be freely applied to open cuts, sores or burns without fear. It soothes while it heals. At your druggist. 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes. Be sure you get the genuine Houstonia—look for Dr. Jones' picture on the yellow wrapper. The Dr. J. C. Jones Co., S. Charleston, O.—Adv.

Returned with Prisoners.

Deputy Sheriff Forbes and former Deputy E. J. Reifol returned Tuesday night from Rochester, N. Y., with Paul Campbell, 18, of St. Regis Falls, N. Y., and William Donovan, 17, of Lima, O., who are charged with the theft of an automobile belonging to Fred Lower, musician of Toledo, as it stood on a street in Rossford. The officers say they confessed the crime. Donovan will not be 18 until next month and will be turned over to the juvenile court, while Campbell will be arraigned in justice court.

The arrest of these two men came from the suspicions of Officer Budhorn of Rochester, N. Y. The two, in company with two others, had stopped in front of a garage on the night of November 16. One of the lads sheepishly inquired the way to Syracuse. The officer's suspicions were excited by his manner and so he managed to get into the auto with the apparent purpose of taking them to another garage where they could find the required directions.

The men, evidently uneasy, stalled their engine purposely on the way. The officer then ordered them sharply to start the machine and kept his hand on his revolver. He then directed them to drive to the police station. As the five alighted one of the men started to run, drawing a revolver as he ran and shooting at the officer. The latter ducked and returned his fire. Neither was hit. The third man arrested.

rested was released as he evidently was not one of the party. New York officers say they were told by Campbell and Donovan that they had stolen the Lower machine at Rossford. The Empire State officers then telegraphed Sheriff Shoecraft of their catch.

First National Bank Case.

The receiver of the First National Bank has just been authorized by the common pleas court to make a settlement with J. T. Frost. The case has excited much interest among those who have followed the course of events in the suspension of the First National Bank following the suicide of Cashier B. C. Harding nearly three years ago.

Frost asserted claims against the bank of $23,406, consisting of a mortgage for $2,500, alleged to have been taken from Frost's safety deposit box by Harding; a receiver's certificate of the old L. E. B. G. & N. Ry. Co. for $6,000, said to have been cashed by Harding; other certificates of deposit shown on the bank books to have been paid; bonds amounting to $2,800 shown as assets of the bank, and checks alleged to have been written by Harding but signed by Frost and charged to his account in the amount of $4,268.84.

The receiver stated that claims of a mortgage for $2,500 and certificate of deposit for $6,077 apparently were right. The bank held against Frost a claim that he and Harding were to pay notes amounting to $2,475 and secured by second mortgage on 147 acres of land in Troy township on which there was also a first mortgage of $10,000.

The receiver asked and was given permission to accept Frost's proposal of settlement by the bank allowing his claim of $6,077 on certificate of deposit together with interest to the time of the bank's insolvency and for Frost to pay the second mortgage claims with interest, a total of $2,674.23, leaving a balance of $3,443.95 due Frost and to be evidenced by a receiver's certificate entitling him to the same dividends as other creditors of the bank, while the second mortgage claim on the lands with the three notes are to be transferred to Frost.

Overmyer and Flowers Held.

James Overmyer and Howard Flowers were held to the grand jury on a charge of burglary by Justice Nearing Tuesday afternoon following a hearing regarding the burglary of J. R. Brough's store at Lemoyne a few weeks ago. They failed to give the required bond of $3,000 each. Harry Overmyer of Toledo was discharged. His machine was used by the men who burglarized the store, but he had notified the Toledo police that it was stolen.

Perryburg Quartette.

Harry E. Stewart, Robert Dawson, John Nord and Harry Livesey, the four men arrested by Perryburg officers Saturday night on suspicion and in whose car were found a large number of auto casings and tubes, pleaded not guilty before Justice Nearing on Tuesday when arraigned on a charge of receiving stolen property. Their hearing was set for December 5th at 10 a. m. They did not give the required bond of $1,000 each.

Identified Tires.

J. E. Hoffman & Son, of Laurel, Ind., who visited Bowling Green and Perryburg to inspect tubes and casings which had been taken by officers there from four men who were arrested on suspicion Saturday night, the 22nd, identified the 46 tubes and 12 casings as those which were stolen from them on November 20th at the same time that a Ford machine was stolen. When arrested at Perryburg with the tires in their possession, the four men were in a Hudson car.

Hurr Suit.

For the second time the supreme court has sustained the lower courts in the suit brought by Sarah Hurr in connection with a note given in 1909, amounting to about $2,000, which she held as a claim against the estate of James Dunipace, deceased. An executor of the estate was appointed about five years ago. The claim was presented to Probate Judge Nearing and the petition was dismissed. Plaintiff then took the case up in common pleas court on equity. That court, the court of appeals, and the supreme court held against her. Return was then made by her to probate court, Judge Bistline being asked to appoint an administrator de bonis non. He held that the estate had been properly represented by an executor and refused such appointment. Appeal was made to the three upper courts. The supreme court has just declined to admit the case.

About Sciences and Religions.

The philosophical sciences deal with the general principles, laws or causes that furnish the rational explanation of anything; the rationale by which the facts of any region of knowledge are explained. The phrase is used more particularly in reference to the study of natural philosophy or physics.

Empirical methods are those of observation. It is a science that grows out of experience. Such a scientist is versed, or skilled, in collecting facts and from those facts generalizations are made. There are hundreds of religions.
